2024 : Blowing the Trumpet for Jubilee

Time to pause and connect some dots for the coming Jubilee year of 2024. Locally Pres. Cyril Ramaphosa and the ANC in serious trouble; Internationally post Ukraine war Europe, America, Woke madness, international debt collapse.

I just need to first give you a recap of the prophetic paradigm I am working on when I make my analysis about why and what I am watching for 2024.

2024 is important for me because it is the year of the 70th Jubilee since the Israelites crossed the Jordan after 40 years in the wilderness to go into Canaan and possess their promised inheritance. Their first target was Jericho and there is rich symbolism there when they blew the Jubilee trumpet 7 times. Which I need to explain.

I am purposely equating this coming event as the start of Daniel's prophecy of Dan. 7
Dan 7:21 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;
Dan 7:22 Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

It is time for the saints to possess the kingdom and manifest it on earth! By saying this I reject that it is "end times" or rapture time or Armageddon time or Antichrist time! These are all dead end deceptions by which the "horn made war against the saints" to deprive them of their inheritance.

I believe 2024 is when the saints and the church start implementing the Kingdom agenda that Jesus set out at the start of His ministry contained in Luke 4:18-19 and it starts in 2024 when I say will be the time to "proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord" which is the Jubilee decree. Jesus started it and we will finish it.

I am also asserting that 2024 is the start of the Canaan campaign of possessing our inheritance and it will take decades of work! No walk over or push over. But it started significantly with a prophetic type of the battle of Jericho. I want to point out some interesting things that happened there as to God's strategy which I believe we need to take note of.

Joshua told the Israelites for six days they must march around Jericho but keep silent.
<sup>10</sup> But Joshua commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout nor let your voice be heard nor let a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I tell you, 'Shout!' Then you shall shout!" (Joshua 6:10)

And then on the 7th day they marched 7 times with trumpets and shouts (Joshua 6:20)

<sup>20</sup> So the people shouted, and priests blew trumpets; and when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, the people shouted with a great shout and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight ahead, and they took the city.

You will note the neat parallel in Revelation when the 7 trumpets blew then a shout goes up after the 7th angel sounded.....

Rev 11:15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

Here is another interesting little fact from Joshua. When the priests blew the "rams horn" (Joshua 6:4,5) in Hebrew the word is "yobel" or Jubilee it literally means that the priests were blowing "the Jubilee".

So here is my prophetic application. I am marching silently with the church around the walls of Jericho (Babylon). For a long while it seems. We have been waiting as a church for a long time for the promises of the greater anointing, victory over the enemy.....that "horn that has been wearing down the saints of the most high". We get tired and discouraged. Why does evil prevail. Why the suffering. When will we see the manifestation of the Kingdom of God on earth?

When? There is a time for everything under the sun. God told Abraham that his descendants will take Canaan as their possession some time in the future but not yet because "....the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full"( Gen 15:16). They still have a lot more sinning to do and then you can take the land when I judge them!

And the tactics that the Lord used was interesting. Some rulers like Nebuchadnezzar God made insane. Others he caused massive internal conflict fighting against each other (2 Chron 20) Others He just blinded and they did not know where to go. Others got deceiving spirits sent to them to make bad choices that destroyed their armies. Others their internal corruption weakened their power and their institutions crumbled.

So here I am figuratively walking around our nation of South Africa and the nations of the world. And I see they are not doing God's Kingdom agenda. All must eventually bow the knees to King Jesus. All will be compelled to get onto God's agenda of "peace on earth" and "swords will be turned into plows" and the poor and the sick and the needy and the lost will be ministered to. And all the earth will be filled with the glory of the Lord. Because the time has come!

So I am silently marching around the seemingly impregnable walls of political power, money power, institutional corruption, media lies and disinformation, social disintegration, corporate corruption....and I see cracks in the walls everywhere. They can't hide it anymore. This thing is ready to go down. One last great trumpet blast from heaven summoning the armies of heaven and a mighty shout from the church of Jesus Christ and this edifice of lies, narcissism, false unity and back stabbing and it all comes crashing down.

And it come down as Hemingway famously wrote in "The Sun Also Rises" ...."So how did you go bankrupt....well two ways, slowly at first then quickly".

Some observations of my journey around Babylon's walls.....with more to come in the months ahead as we head towards 2024....

South Africa

This last week the political calculation in South Africa took a drastic turn. If you are following the news headlines you will have seen that our billionaire president Cyril Ramaphosa was accused of hiding a theft at his game farm of some $4-$8 million in cash stuffed into his furniture. The case was lodged at the Rosebank police station for prosecution in a number of counts.

The implication is the prosecution if enacted is that under the ANC "step aside rule" for those facing court criminal charges is that his deputy D.D.Mabuza takes over and Ramaphosa will not be available for the party congress in December to nominate him as their candidate for the 2024 election as President.

As of this writing the political sharks smell blood in the murky waters of national politics and friends and enemies are circling. My personal analysis is that there are at least 5-6 possible criminal charges he could face. Even if by some backstage miracle manipulation he manages to evade the charges the optics are so bad to a nation of desperately poor people who cannot imagine how you could be so rich as to allow R50 - R100 million in foreign currency to simply lie around the house and not banked in your bank account....it staggers the imagination. He was supposed to be Mr. Clean. The one ANC leader clean and incorruptible in the midst of an organization corrupt from top to bottom. And BTW what was his vice president DD Mabuza doing for months this year in Moscow? Medical leave? I think not.

My assessment up till now was that the ANC was going to lose support in 2024 but will be able to put together a coalition government and only in 2029 will they lose total power. Now I don't know. I think 2024 elections can be the year they lose all power. They have no credible leader to replace Ramaphosa.

What could this mean for the majority of people in South Africa who identify as Christians? Can we change the national agenda, clean out the crooks and the incompetent and get Godly leadership and government in 2024?

Europe and America and Woke Madness

The disintegration of social morality in the public space in what we call the "West" is breathtaking. I cannot keep up with the utter degradation of decency and traditional morality with so many examples to choose from in recent headlines.

I am not here trying to attack the gay lifestyle...what people do in their private lives is their business. I do attack abortion because some one needs to protect the right to life of an unborn child.

What I want to emphasize here is the sheer irrational lunatic behavior that is threatening the whole corrupt edifice of the so called "enlightenment" era that has now become "post modernism". I give you several examples out of Europe as there are too many examples out of America that are common knowledge but everyone sort of expects California craziness to percolate through to the rest of America....but Scandinavia and Britain? Sober conservative, solid? Try this....I quote:

A Norwegian feminist faces up to three years in prison for saying that biological men can't be lesbians. Christina Ellingsen, of the global feminist organization Women's Declaration International (WDI), is under police investigation for making the claim in a tweet in which she criticized the trans activism group FRI.

She also questioned the legitimacy of FRI's advisor Christine Jentoft identifying as a lesbian despite being born a biological male.

"Jentoft, who is male and an advisor in FRI, presents himself as a lesbian – that's how bonkers the organization which supposedly works to protect young lesbians' interests is. How does it help young lesbians when males claim to be lesbian, too?" Ellingsen reportedly said. "You are a man. You cannot be a mother," Ellingsen allegedly told Jentoft.

What a man cannot be a mother? How dare she contradict the United Kingdom National Health Service. A headline and report this week....

UK's NHS Scrubs The Word "Women" From Ovarian Cancer Guidance To Be More "Inclusive"; Report

The National Health Service website in the UK has altered its guidance pages on ovarian cancer, removing instances of the word "women" in a move that sources say is intended to be more "inclusive" toward trans, non-binary and intersex people.

So how do you trust those supposedly very clever and supposedly very competent British doctors who believe that men can develop ovarian cancer? You sure you still want to go to Britain for expert medical treatment? The ruling class of the Western world has literally gone mad. The lunatics run the asylum and they will destroy their nations and their future survival.

Ukraine War : The Aftermath

The Ukraine war will end at some time. It will end with a Russian victory that will by my analysis of current Russian political and war objectives be when they control Eastern Ukraine with its majority Russian speaking population and control the southern coast region that will include all the ports on the Black sea.

Ukraine or what will be left of it will be western Ukraine desperately trying to remain some kind of viable national state so that Poland, Romania and Hungary do not come and annex the territories that in history past belonged to them before the Soviets annexed the territory. Lvov the large Ukrainian city was for centuries an integral part of Poland.

Russia will rebuild the destroyed sections of eastern Ukraine and get the farms, factories and mines working again and integrate the people and the economy into the Russian state. Russia is already stronger financially now than before the war. The Russian ruble is stronger. The Russians have abundant food, energy and mineral supplies. Russia is running enormous monthly trade surpluses with no shortage of buyers for all their products and ample suppliers of imports from most of the world that has not embargoed them.

The Europeans have none of those advantages. Europe will degrade into a deep depression as they have cut themselves off from their natural supplies of energy food and minerals from the east and have cut themselves from their natural major export markets in the east. By siding with NATO against Russia they have literally destroyed their economies and their future.

By the time 2024 comes around and Europe is starving for food and energy and their export are no longer competitive on the world markets without Russian cheap energy and commodities the people of Europe will be in revolt.

A major shift on world power will then be in motions. From a uni-polar world order under the power of America and NATO to a multi-polar world power structure with a new world financial structure which I will elaborate on in future blogs.

But the harbinger of the coming collapse of the Euro and the European economic structure is this chart for those of you that understand what dramatically rising interest rates mean for deeply indebted Euro region. The chart for 10 year government bonds in Europe is the canary in the coal mine....

Italy Greece and Spain will be the first to go down in Europe. Around the world the national bankruptcies have already started. Case in point. This last week Sri Lanka had 1 day of petrol left and no money to buy more.

Keep marching around Babylon church.....the trumpet will sound, not for the rapture or the resurrection but for the fall of Babylon and the rise of the Kingdom of God on earth. 2024?
