American War Prophecies Part 2

I want to clarify last week's prophetic bad news. When prophets speak about visions they are open to judgement and analysis. Who is the woman of power over America? What does destruction of the nation look like? Herewith my different interpretation.

Last week I gave you a dire prophecy from the American prophet of years ago, William Branham that he saw in June of 1933 about what lies ahead for America and the world. Of the seven prophecies the last 3 were for our time. The vision of a driverless car in an egg shape seemed to locate the last two prophecies for our time and would cause the most distress now at the time of the European war which I believe is correct to call World War 3...once again on European soil and once again drawing in America and Europe into a monumental conflict.

I want to clarify these last two prophetic visions of Branham:

- A powerful woman over America
- Destruction of America.

If you have studied the history of prophets and prophecies you will have noticed that God gives prophets dreams or visions and then scripture says we must judge those visions and dreams firstly to see if they become true and secondly we are encouraged to try to get the mind of Christ as to what do they mean. Last week I gave you the prophecies and now I want to give you what I believe they mean. And it has major implications for the whole church and the difficult time ahead.

The Vision of the Woman of Power over America.

People including prophets are sometimes given dreams or vision but do not know the meaning. They come in symbols that need interpretation. Nebuchadnezzar had his famous dream of the statue but did not know what it meant. Daniel interpreted it for him.

I want to interpret Branham's vision of the woman of power that rules over America. I believe all the current interpretations you will see in the many discussions now going on in the American prophetic groups have it wrong. The concentration is on Joe Biden removed out of office and Kamala Harris becoming president and thus the prophecy being fulfilled and then afterward America being destroyed. The same talk was going on when everyone expected Hillary Clinton to become president.

Branham himself admitted he did not know what or who the great woman of power would be. He said maybe a political figure or the Catholic Church. I don't think that is right either.

I believe if you get the woman prophecy right you will get right what is going to be destroyed in America according to the seventh prophecy. I believe God has a great purpose for His church in America so what does destruction of America look like combined with a great church revival?

There is however a great power in America symbolized by a woman that is going to be destroyed and it will cause enormous economic and social damage to America and the world but at the end of that destruction the Church of Jesus Christ will be liberated to establish His Kingdom as it should in America and the world.

To help you understand who that woman is you need to know the exact words Branham used and you need to know about the famous vision that America's first president George Washington had at Valley Forge in the desperate days of the American Revolutionary war.

Branham described the woman "And I seen a great woman rise up beautiful to look at but cruel and wicked in heart...."

George Washington's Vision at Valley Forge Winter of 1777

Most evangelical Christians in America know about the famous vision that their president George Washington had at Valley Forge. It wasn't a dream. It was an open vision. They are all very proud of this visitation from God which they describe as an angelic visitation. Except it was not the angel of the Lord. George Washington was visited by a heavenly being which he described as a "very beautiful woman".

"George Washington's Vision" (the opening portion)

"This afternoon, as I was sitting at this table engaged in preparing a dispatch, something seemed to disturb me. Looking up, I beheld standing opposite me a singularly beautiful female. So astonished was I, for I had given strict orders not to be disturbed, that it was some moments before I found language to inquire the cause of her presence. A second, a third and even a fourth time did I repeat my question, but received no answer from my mysterious visitor except a slight raising of her eyes....".

George Washington was a very well known Master Mason and so were most of the so called "founders of the Republic". George Washington was so taken up with this beautiful female god and her promise of victory and protection for the new nation that Washington did what the Israelites in rebellion to Yahweh did when they wanted wealth and power...he built a sacred high place for her honour and worship.

It was called Washington DC or District of Columbia as a home for Isis, the ancient goddess of the earth also called 'Columba, the dove'. Through history she has gone by other names: Astarte, Athena, Semiramis etc. This is her "District" or her home. It is her city with her power symbols. She stands atop the Capitol building as the highest place. Her District was carved out of Maryland and Virginia. Virginia and Maryland stand for "Virgin Mary" or just another symbolic reference to Isis. The city for Isis was to be "foursquare" (10 miles on a side) with a river running through it (The Potomac River) just as the heavenly New Jerusalem. The Greeks built a temple for her on the hill of the Acropolis and called their city by her name: Athens (for Athena) She was also honoured by French Masonic lodges who donated the great Statue of Liberty (Isis) to their American brothers.

In the Old Testament this practice of building occult places of power was often done by the apostate Israelites to worship false gods. They called it "high places". It does not mean high as in height. The word is the Hebrew "ramah" meaning an "eminent place". Read this from 2 Kings 17:9:

"And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the Lord their God; and they built them high places in all their cities from the towers of the watchmen to the fenced city".

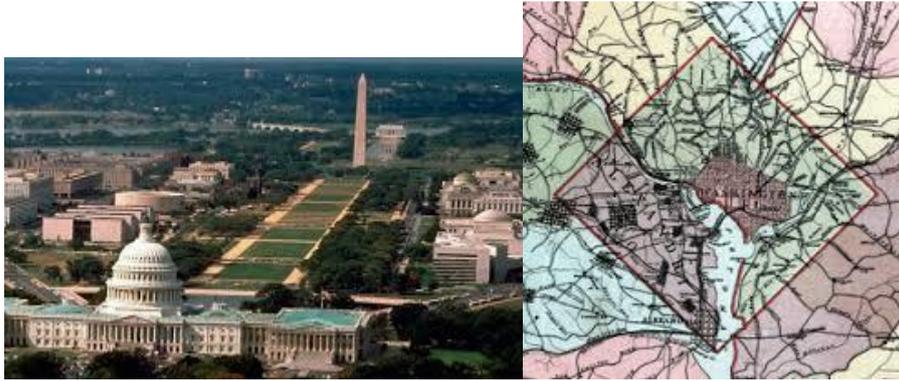

This ancient goddess comes from the Egyptian occult mysteries of Isis and Osiris. Osiris as Satan and Isis his earthly bride who is to create a body for him to rise up and inhabit. These are the ancient hieroglyph symbols for these two...

. The star, the obelisk and the dome; standing for their star Sirius, the phallus of Osiris and the vagina of Isis. The dome and obelisk are erected wherever the goddess Isis is enthroned to prepare a "body" for the resurrected Osiris to rule from.

That is the Pantheon in Rome for the god of Rome and that is the Vatican for the Revived Roman Empire.

That is Washington DC originally a “city four square” mocking the New Jerusalem.

Through Masonic alchemy, presidential apotheosis—that is, the leader of the United States (America’s Pharaoh) being transformed into a god within the Capitol Dome/womb of Isis in sight of the Obelisk of Osiris (the Washington Monument) actually began with America’s first and most revered president, Master Freemason George Washington. According to this Masonic enchantment, Osiris (Horus) was rising within a new president in DC as Washington took his role as Osiris of the underworld.

When visitors to Washington DC tour the Capitol, one of the unquestionable highlights is to visit the womb of Isis—the Capitol Dome where, when peering upward from inside Isis’ continuously pregnant belly, tourists can see hidden in plain sight Brumidi’s 4,664-square-foot fresco, The Apotheosis of George Washington. The word “apotheosis” means to “deify” or to “become a god,” and explains part of the reason US presidents, military commanders, and members of Congress lay in state in the Capitol Dome. The womb of Isis is where they go at death to magically reach apotheosis and transform into gods.

Those who believe the United States was founded on Christianity and visit the Capitol for the first time will be surprised by the stark contrast to historic Christian artwork of the ascension of Jesus Christ compared to the “heaven” George Washington rises into from within the energized Capitol Dome/womb of Isis. It is not occupied by angels, but with devils and pagan deities important to Masonic belief. These include Hermes, Neptune, Venus (Isis), Ceres, Minerva, and Vulcan (Satan), of course, the son of Jupiter and Juno to which human sacrifices are made. The sacrifice of children is essential for power from these gods (fallen angels).

America’s Second War of Independence

If you look at the American political struggle today then it can be clearly defined as the States against the Federal government in Washington DC. The power of the Federal government has grown so much and regulates so much of America’s life that the individual states are now getting ready for a rebellion.

The American constitution gave very limited power to the central government and the states were to retain all their original powers and rights. But through the years that demonic Colomba/Isis sitting enthroned in her high place has done everything possible to destroy America’s Kingdom Destiny.

The powers of the Federal government has made rules that all states must obey. This resulted in abortion as a national law. It resulted in the rise and empowerment of a financial corporate domination of the middle class and the impoverishment of the people. It has resulted in numerous useless foreign wars, high taxes, moral decline and the now the destruction of the American dollar through debt and profligate national spending.

Let me show you what the constitutional laws of the original American states looked like before the creation of Washington DC and its new Constitution that allowed the rise to power and dominion of this powerful woman over America..

Now here is the fascinating thing about the original constitutions of the first early settlements of America that became states. They were all dedicated to the establishment of the Kingdom of God on earth and all required public officials to be Protestants and swear faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Old Testament and New Testament as scripture. Here some examples from the original constitutions of some of the states...before Isis/Columba was enthroned in her "district" and had the Constitution of America rewritten:

Articles of Confederation of the United Colonies of New England 1643

"Whereas we all came into these parts of America with one and the same end and aim namely to advance the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ and to enjoy the liberties of the Gospel in purity and peace..."

Constitution of Delaware 1776 Art. 22 Oath of office "I.....do profess faith in God the Father and His only Son Jesus Christ....I do acknowledge the Holy scripture of the Old and New Testament to be given by divine inspiration."

Constitution of Georgia 1777 Art VI "The representatives shall be....of the Protestant religion and of the age of 21 years..."

Constitution of Maryland 1776 Art LV oath of office "I do not hold my self bound in allegiance to the King of England ...and shall also subscribe a declaration of his belief in the Christian religion."

Constitution of New Jersey 1683 Art XVI "No man shall be admitted a member of the great or common Council or any other place of public trust who shall not profess in Christ Jesus..."

Charter of Delaware 1701 "And all persons who also profess to believe in Jesus Christ the saviour of the world shall be capable to serve this government in any capacity..."

Charter of Massachusetts 1691 "there shall be liberty of Conscience allowed in the worship of God to all Christians, except Papists, inhabiting or which shall inhabit our said province or territory."

Constitution of North Carolina 1776 Art.XXXII "That no person who shall deny the being of God or the truth of the Protestant religion or the divine authority of either the Old or New Testaments...shall be capable of holding office..."

When you hear about American talking about the "founders" of the country they talk about people like Washington, Madison, Franklin, Jefferson...the leaders of the Masonic coup of 1789 that imposed a new vision and new constitution on America that wiped out the real "founders" of America and the foundation they laid as the land where Jesus Christ is Lord and the Kingdom of God was to be built on God's law.

That is who the beautiful and cruel woman is in the vision of Branham. We the people of God do not fight against flesh and blood. A woman president is not the ultimate power or evil of America. We discern in the Spirit realm to see who the ruling principalities and powers are that control nations...and we deal with them by the Sword of the Spirit.

What about the 7th Vision? The destruction of America with bombs falling?

Here is my interpretation of the destruction that the prophet saw in his vision of America. In 1933 when Branham saw this vision of destruction the only way a message of destruction could be conveyed was with war fighting destruction. But there is another way to express an atomic bomb falling. This week prime Minister Victor Orban of Hungary said as reported in news media.....

Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orban has criticized a plan to phase out Russian oil imports, which has been proposed by the European Commission, saying that such an embargo would be tantamount to "dropping a nuclear bomb" on his country's economy.

There are many ways to destroy a nation apart from dropping a nuclear bomb on it. The destruction of war is meant to kill people and destroy an economy. I don't think an atomic bomb attack from Russia is going to do that. Isis/Columba the goddess of America's Federal government has already done that. The dollar and the economy is being destroyed, the factories were moved to China, the drugs that are killing the youth are streaming across the unprotected border and 72 million innocent babies have already been killed by abortion laws.

Instead of America's calling to be a light to the nations it has become a sewer of moral degeneracy infecting the nations of the world, the worlds largest arms supplier and the initiator of wars all over the world.

This last week the renowned Stanford professor and Fellow of the Stanford Institute Victor Davis Hanson wrote an article entitled "Imagine the Unimaginable" He and others are predicting the breakup of the United States, a new revolutionary war struggle against the madness of the Federal government I quote from his article...

Americans are now entering uncharted, revolutionary territory. They may witness things over the next five months that once would have seemed unimaginable. After a year of politicizing the U.S. military and its self-induced catastrophe in Afghanistan, America has lost deterrence abroad. China, Iran, North Korea, and Russia are conniving how best to exploit this rare window of global military opportunity.

The traditional bedrocks of the American system—a stable economy, energy independence, vast surpluses of food, hallowed universities, a professional judiciary, law enforcement, and a credible criminal justice system—are dissolving.

Gas and diesel prices are hitting historic levels. Inflation is at a 40-year high. New cars and homes are unaffordable. The necessary remedy of high interest and tight money will be almost as bad as the disease of hyperinflation.

There is no southern border. Expect over 1 million foreign nationals to swarm this summer into the United States without audit, COVID testing, or vaccination. None will have any worry of consequences for breaking U.S. immigration law.

Police are underfunded and increasingly defunded. District attorneys deliberately release violent criminals without charges. Murder and assault are spiraling. Carjacking and smash-and-grab thefts are now normal big-city events. Crime is now mostly a political matter. Ideology, race, and politics determine whether the law is even applied.

Supermarket shelves are thinning, and meats are now beyond the budgets of millions of Americans. An American president—in a first—casually warns of food shortages. Baby formula has disappeared from many shelves.

*Politics are resembling the violent last days of the Roman Republic. An illegal leak of a possible impending Supreme Court reversal of Roe v. Wade that would allow state voters to set their own abortion laws has created a national hysteria.*

Never has a White House tacitly approved mobs of protesters showing up at Supreme Court justices' homes to rant and bully them into altering their votes.

There is no free speech any more on campuses. Merit is disappearing. Admissions, hiring, promotion, retention, grading, and advancement are predicated increasingly on mouthing the right orthodoxies or belonging to the proper racial, gender, or ethnic category.

When the new campus commissariat finally finishes absorbing the last redoubts in science, math, engineering, medical, and professional schools, America will slide into permanent mediocrity and irreversible declining standards of living.

What happened? Remember all these catastrophes are self-induced. They are choices, not fate. The United States has the largest combined gas, coal, and oil deposits in the world. It possesses the know-how to build the safest pipelines and to ensure the cleanest energy development on the planet.

Inflation was a deliberate Biden choice. For short-term political advantage, he kept printing trillions of dollars, incentivizing labor non-participation, and keeping interest rates at historical lows—at a time of pent-up global demand.

The administration wanted no border. Only that way can politicized, impoverished immigrants repay left-wing undermining of the entire legal immigration system with their fealty at the ballot box.

Once esoteric, crack-pot academic theories—“modern monetary theory,” critical legal theory, critical race theory—now dominate policymaking in the Biden administration.

The common denominator in all of this is ideology overruling empiricism, common sense, and pragmatism. Ruling elites would rather be politically correct failures and unpopular than politically incorrect, successful, and popular.

Is it not the tired story of left-wing revolutionaries from 18th-century France to early 20th-century Russia to the contemporary disasters in Cuba and Venezuela?

The American people reject the calamitous policies of 2021–2022. Yet the radical cadres surrounding a cognitively inert Biden still push them through by executive orders, bureaucratic directives, and deliberate cabinet nonperformance.

Why? The Left has no confidence either in constitutional government or common sense. So as the public pushes back, expect at the ground level more doxxing, cancel culture, deplatforming, ministries of disinformation, swarming the private homes of officials they target for bullying, and likely violent demonstrations in our streets this summer.

Meanwhile, left-wing elites will do their best to ignore Supreme Court decisions, illegally cancel student debts, and likely by the fall issue more COVID lockdowns. They will still dream of packing the Court, ending the filibuster, scrapping the Electoral College, adding more states, and flooding the November balloting with hundreds of millions more dollars of dark money from Silicon Valley.

When revolutionaries undermine the system, earn the antipathy of the people, and face looming disaster at the polls, it is then they prove most dangerous—as we shall see over the next few months.

This is how a great nation destroys itself without a bomb being dropped on its territory.

But I see signs of revival and the coming destruction of Columba/Isis and her rule over America. I see a second American Revolutionary war coming. More than half the 50 states are in open rebellion against Washington DC. America and the world are going into a major economic depression with energy, food and resources scarce.

I see both America and Europe breaking apart so that those who want to serve God and be counted as “sheep nations” will break away and those continuing in degenerate behaviour will fall apart. Russia is only too happy to break with a degenerate west. And there will be nations in Eastern Europe that will break away as well. As will nations in South America and Africa and Asia.

Daniel’s prophetic interpretation of the Nebuchadnezzar’s dream is coming true. In the end there are “iron and clay” nations that don’t mix but fall apart. The righteous in America will take control of the states that they can control. The destruction that Branham saw over America is the empire of Isis/Columba falling so that America can restore her original calling from God to be a city in hill and the place where the Kingdom of God goes forth to all the world.

And if that means that Los Angeles gets the “as in the days of Noah” treatment of sinking in water, so be it. Or if it means a bomb destroys the money centre of the world in New York city as David Wilkerson saw in his famous vision...so be it. But God who started a good work with the Mayflower pilgrims as the true founders of America will complete His plan for that great nation.
