American Gods Part 2: The Chariots of the Gods

In the last month the US "mainstream media" (New York Times, Wash. Post, Wall Street Journal) have all reported Pentagon admission: "UFO's" are real, they are "off earth" construction. In these crazy days ahead, in case there is the usual "October Surprise" before the American election here is my "just in case" briefing....

In American political lore the month before the November presidential election usually produced what is called an "October surprise" by the incumbent president needing to attract attention from the electorate to boost his image. A war or a military attack or a spectacular secret about his opponent etc. So I am speculating about some major international "October surprise" which in these crazy times could be really "crazy" to get the electorate's attention.

So when the American military establishment in the form of the US Navy finally acknowledge that "UFO's" are real and release Naval pilots gun sight tracking films chasing these craft with pilots descriptions.....then something strange is afoot. And when the "mainstream media" seriously reports on this and TV news plays the videos then it is time to sit up and take notice. And all of this happened in the last month.

So I would not be surprised if in the months ahead before the November election the president of America holds an official Oval Office announcement starting with "My fellow Americans...we have a problem and I believe it is time for the American government to open our secret files and admit what most of you already suspect....".

In case you think this might be farfetched let me just give you a redacted portion of a recent lengthy report in the New York Times (America's official paper of record as to what is real and not real).

U.S. Navy Releases Videos of Unexplained Flying Objects

The U.S. Navy has officially published previously released videos showing unexplained objects.

[radio transmission] "Whoa, got it — woo-hoo!" "Roger —" "What the [expletive] is that?" "Did you box a moving target?" "No, I took an auto track." "Oh, OK." "Oh my gosh, dude. Wow" "What is that man?" "There's a whole screen of them. My gosh." "They're all going against the wind. The wind's 120 knots from west." "Dude." "That's not — is it?" "[inaudible]" "Look at that thing."

Pentagon Found "Vehicles Not Made On This Earth"; Rubio Hopes It's Alien, Not Chinese

As secretive unit operating within the U.S. Department of Defense that is charged with investigating unidentified flying objects (UFOs) will make some of its findings public after it was revealed that the Pentagon has been recently briefed about "off-world vehicles not made on this earth."

The once-covert UFO unit, which operates within the U.S. Navy's Office of Naval Intelligence, will soon begin giving regular biannual updates on its research to the U.S. Senate's Intelligence Committee, reports The New York Times.

The Unidentified Aerial Phenomenon Task Force was formed in 2019 for the purpose of studying strange and inexplicable encounters between U.S. military pilots and unidentified aerial vehicles or UFOs in a bid "to standardize collection and reporting" of the various sightings.

The program is the successor to the Advanced Aerospace Threat Identification Program, which also investigated UFOs but was dissolved in 2017 due to a lapse of funding. However, the team working on that program continued its work alongside the intelligence community even after it was officially disbanded.

Luis Elizondo, a former military intelligence official who headed the Pentagon program, resigned in October 2017 after a decade with the program. Elizondo, along with a group of former government scientists and officials, remain convinced that objects of unknown origin have crashed on Earth and that these apparently extraterrestrial materials have been the focus of research.

"It no longer has to hide in the shadows," Elizondo told the Times. "It will have a new transparency."

"After looking into this, I came to the conclusion that there were reports — some were substantive, some not so substantive — that there were actual materials that the government and the private sector had in their possession," Reid said.

So far, none of the alleged crash artifacts have been subject to public scrutiny or verification by independent researchers. However, some of the retrieved objects such as strange metallic debris were identified as being manmade — raising the possibility that they could be related to the military of U.S. rivals such as China or Russia.

However, astrophysicist Eric Davis — who served as an advisor for the Pentagon program since 2007 — said that he had briefed the Pentagon in March about material retrieved from "off-world vehicles not made on this earth."

*The Department of Defense subcontractor also said that he had concluded that the objects found were of the type "we couldn't make ... ourselves."

In an interview last month, President Donald Trump told his son Donald Trump Jr. that he had heard some "interesting" things about supposed aliens as well as the secretive Area 51 base near Roswell, New Mexico, that some theorists claim is a UFO crash site.

The U.S. government has been increasingly open in its discussions of UFOs since last September, when U.S. Navy admitted that widely-circulated video footage captured by Navy pilots that purportedly showed UFOs flying through the skies did depict actual “unknown” objects that flew into U.S. airspace.

While officials admitted that they have been baffled by the unknown flying objects, they also admit that past encounters with them have been frequent. They also said that rather than calling them “UFOs,” they prefer the term unidentified aerial phenomena or UAPs.

While it remains yet to be seen what information the once-secret UFO unit plans to lay out for lawmakers, acting intelligence committee chairman Sen. Marco Rubio (R-FL) is intent on finding out who or what precisely is behind the apparent UFO activity over U.S. military bases.

“We have things flying over our military bases and places where we are conducting military exercises and we don’t know what it is — and it isn’t ours,” Rubio told CBS Miami in an interview last Friday.

“Frankly, that if it’s something from outside this planet — that might actually be better than the fact that we’ve seen some technological leap on behalf of the Chinese or the Russians or some other adversary that allows them to conduct this sort of activity,” the hawkish senator added.

Ok, so it's no longer the past official reaction...."that is just your imagination" "you saw a weather balloon", "you saw our new xxxx experimental jet fighter, nothing to see here move on" etc.

The usual official denials are over. The entire US Senate has gotten a private briefing from Pentagon intelligence experts....these craft are not ours, nor the Russians or the Chinese, we are not capable with our technology to build these, they are off world construction.

My Analysis Briefing....

Every great world power through the ages have had to make a bended knee to the hidden powers of the fallen angels, the gods of old, who fight among themselves for territory, influence and power. Do not for a moment think that there is any peace or brotherhood in the kingdom of Satan. Just a casual reading of the book of Daniel will give you a glimpse into this behind the scenes warfare of the fallen gods.

So do not be surprised if the greatest world power in history America, had to have a special place for the "gods" to be acknowledged and obeyed. You will in history find the same symbols and arcana of occultism in London, Rome, the Vatican, Athens, Egypt, Beijing as well as the power symbols in the worlds of financial power.

I say all that to say this....

We are now in a very dangerous timeline period of God's plan for the ages. Ever since the end of World War 2 special "gates of hell" and "gates of heavenly outpouring of the Holy Spirit" have been taking place in parallel.

The great Holy Spirit "signs and wonders" world outpouring can be traced to an incident in May 1946. A man called William Branham said he had a visitation from an angel of God and given a prophetic calling of signs and wonders, healing the sick and demonstrating amazing gifts of the Spirit. By 1948 this one event had triggered a mass release of new evangelists, tent revivals, healing crusades for the next 10 years which in the 1960's became the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in all denominations, which became in the 1970's the great Jesus People movement and on and on.

Today if anyone announces "I had a visitation from an angel" it doesn't raise a stir. Today the testimonies are everywhere of angel visitations, trips caught up to heaven, personal visitations by Jesus and increasingly visitations by Jesus to Muslims!

But on the other side other gates have also opened up. In 1947 the famous "Roswell" crashed UFO incident, the Kenneth Arnold sightings of what he described as "flying saucers" and from there to today as many angelic encounters we have in the charismatic world, the rest of the world is having "UFO encounters" and as many "caught up to heaven" testimonies we are hearing so many "abducted by aliens" stories are everywhere.

So here is my "just in case" word to you. I don't know if we are finally going to get some presidential announcement soon. I will not be surprised if we do. But if not now, then it will come some time in the future. The whole world is ready for "contact" Hollywood has been brainwashing our kids for decades with "Star Wars" and "Star Trek" and Harry Potter and X-Men and Avengers and Superman and ET and the whole "transcendence" movement has been waiting for the "gods" who created us to return and save us and the planet from ecological destruction. The "woke" fragile "snowflakes" of the technocratic era are ready for Star Trek's United Federation of Planets.

The ones not ready for this coming unveiling are the evangelical charismatics looking for some "Antichrist" coming out of the EU or Islam and hoping to be raptured out of here before this all happens. It is not without reason that scripture talks about the whole earth will be deceived when "the beast" emerges from the Abyss.

Which brings me to who or what entity is behind all this. You will not have heard about him in church. He likes to disguise himself and keep hidden. But every ancient tale of the gods and myth of the gods speak about him. The Summerians, the Egyptians, the Greeks...they all spoke about "the god who will rise from the Abyss". The Bible in Revelation talks about him as the great destroyer who is to ascend from the Abyss.

The ancient book of Enoch had much to say about him. It called him Azazel. The great leader of the fallen angels. Jesus met him in the desert and bound him so he could not deceive the nations until he will be released at some time in the future. Let me quote for you what Enoch said about him....

ENOCH 8:1 And Azazel taught men to make swords, and knives, and shields, and breastplates, and made known to them the metals of the earth and the art of working them, and bracelets, and ornaments, and the use of antimony, and the beautifying of the eyelids, and all kinds of costly stones, and all 2 colouring tinctures. And there arose much godlessness, and they committed fornication, and they 3 were led astray, and became corrupt in all their ways. . .

ENOCH 54:3 And there mine eyes saw how they made these their instruments, iron chains of immeasurable weight. 4 And I asked the angel of peace who went with me, saying: "For whom are these chains being prepared? And he said unto me: "These are being prepared for the hosts of Azazel, so that they may take them and cast them into the Abyss of complete condemnation, and they shall cover their jaws with rough stones as the Lord of Spirits commanded. 6 And Michael, and Gabriel, and Raphael, and Phanuel shall take hold of them on that great day, and cast them on that day into the burning furnace, that the Lord of Spirits may take vengeance on them for their unrighteousness in becoming subject to Satan and leading astray those who dwell on the earth."

II PETER 2:4 . . . God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to hell and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved for judgment; (NKJV)

REVELATION 9:11 They had for their king the angel of the Abyss, whose name, in Hebrew, is Abaddon, and in Greek, Apollyon, or the Destroyer. (NEB)

REVELATION 17:8 "The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the Abyss and go to destruction. . . ." (NASU)

I will give you more background next week on Azazel and the UFO deception. But here is your takeaway this week.

There is a particularly strong and nasty fallen angel and his host who in times past delighted in teaching mankind all sorts of ways to kill each other, corrupt themselves, and deceive mankind. The book of Enoch calls him Azazel ("the goat" god). The Greek readers of Revelation would recognize as the god Apollo. The Egyptians would recognize him as the god Osiris.

Jesus overcame him and bound him in the desert after 40 days of prayer and fasting. But he is to be released from the Abyss for a short time to deceive the world and to do what he has always done. Teach mankind new technology for destruction and degrade the masses of mankind in all sorts of debauchery.

Azazel is loose in the earth! The Abyss is open. Heinrich Himmler and his secret occult society the Ahnenerbe sacrificed millions of Jews to Azazel for the secrets of time and space. They built the first UFO's. They fled to Antarctica at the end of the war. There is something happening in Antarctica!

But that is a story for next week.....
