The TV Series “The Handmaid’s Tale

I understand that in America last year the top ratings for a TV series was “The Handmaid’s Tale”. I finished watching the first season as well and want to make some comments here.

For those of you who have not watched it the graphic on the left sums it up: A religious movement in America, a sort of evangelical Taliban, has taken control of America in coup and renamed America the “Republic of Gilead”. It is a male dominated Old Testament type patriarchy with a return to stoning for sins, women are mere chattels for men and consigned to breeding children....which is the job of the fertile “Handmaids”.

This is of course typical Hollywood propaganda hype. They have noted that president Trump’s “base” of support is the 30% of the America that are evangelical Christians. This is a culture war....but also a spiritual war. The American left has woken up to the reality of a silent Christian minority that is not so silent anymore and seems to have found a voice to speak through Donald Trump. And therefore the scaremongering....”we are headed for a nation of religious tyranny!”; ‘Your freedoms are in danger!’

The interesting real tyranny of the left of course is the absolute suppression of the freedom of speech as enshrined in the 1st Bill of Rights of the America Constitution...the right to freedom of speech. If you doubt that try to get onto any of the campuses of the University of California and try to hold a debate on issues contrary to the accepted political correctness of the hour. For that matter try this at any of the major American universities....

The Problems for the American Evangelical Movement

However I need to point out the crisis facing the evangelical movement in both America as well as countries around the world. Here is the problem:

Governments, media, think tanks, world powers....all are starting to be very aware that there is an enormous transnational phenomenon taking place silently under the radar. The explosive growth of the charismatic evangelical movement in all countries around the world. And those numbers are starting to make themselves felt.

Increasingly these world powers want to know: What is the agenda of this world movement? In America the political left was sucker punched at the last moment of the presidential election in the most improbable come from behind election when Trump beat Hillary Clinton. All political commentators agreed: Nobody saw it coming including the Trump team, and everyone knows it was the power of the evangelical vote that pulled Trump across the line.

Now the question arises...we have this powerful voting block of people...what do they want? And here is where the culture and spiritual wars are being defined....Hollywood has come out with a blockbuster TV series to define in the public mind what the evangelicals want. "watch out they want to turn America into an Old Testament patriarchy", "they are the Christian Taliban", "they are going to take away our liberties!".

And that is the challenge for the evangelical movement: What is it that we want in this world? How do we define "Thy Kingdom come thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven..."

This issue is being avoided by Christian leaders. They are trying to define a Christian agenda as "pro-life". Yes I agree to that. But what else? The problem is that when it comes to "what else?" it veers into hyper nationalism...."Make America great again", "America first"...Really? What ever happened to "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God..." How about "the Kingdom of God first", Then there is the whole issue of the economy....is finance capitalism as practiced by Wall Street God's program for prosperity? Have we evangelical actually come together to determine a Biblically based alternative that will spread the wealth from the 1% to the bottom 90%?

WE are being challenged by the world....What do you believe in and what do you want and how do you propose to get it?

My concern is this...the 5-fold ministry leadership of the Church is not defining for us where we are headed. Everything is on hold...Wait for Jesus, when He comes again He will lead us. Has anybody considered the fact that Jesus as Head of the Church is here and that He does have a plan and He does have a plan for His creation and maybe it is time to stop 40 years wandering in the wilderness and go and possess the Promised Land! Maybe it is time to send out some scouts to see what lies ahead.

“The Shape of Water”

I went to go see this movie last week. I really need to make a comment on this. You will hear more about this movie at Oscar presentations. It has been nominated for 13 Oscars. It has won numerous awards already....

And it is a seriously weird and evil film! Here the background...

To put it simply....it's back in the 1950's and the American government has captured an "alien" in the Amazon river who the local tribes worship as a "god" and who comes up out of the water to accept their sacrifices and praise. This "water god" is held in a secret government facility and after inspecting the god and torturing him they decide to dispose of the creature so the Russians don't get him. However secretly the cleaning maid who is responsible for cleaning the lab where the god is kept in a large water tank has befriended him and plots his rescue and escape with her fellow cleaner and her gay neighbour. They escape and she ends up having a sexual relationship with this fish/man god, the government agent tracks them down, kills them both but the god rises from the dead, kills the bad government guy and fish/man/god raises her from the dead and turns her into a mermaid!

I kid you not...this film is going to walk away with most of the Oscars this year!

Why my interest?

This goes to the ongoing theme I have noted in movies, TV series, books, media...the return of the gods from out of the Abyss of Revelation that promises the ancient gods of old who deceived mankind will return to deceive mankind once again.

You will remember from Genesis 6 the fallen angels coming down to earth and sexually mating with women to breed the Nephelims...the giants of old, the men of renown of old. Well that is the theme of all the latest blockbuster films. We have had all the other gods, the ones from the sky also known in scripture as "Beelzebub" or "the Lord of those that Fly"...notice how many of the comic book heroes can fly? The chariots of the gods? The UFO themes. We have had the TV series "American Gods" the return of the old and ancient gods. Now we have the water gods of the submerged 'Atlantis' also known in the Bible as "Dagon" the man/fish god of the Philistines and as Enki of the Sumerians.

In 1st Samuel 5 the Philistines captured the Ark of the Covenant and placed it before their fish/man god Dagon....the next morning he was broken on the ground in front of the Ark. And this is the destiny of the ones who are rising from the Abyss...they will be smashed by the people of God who carry the presence of God!

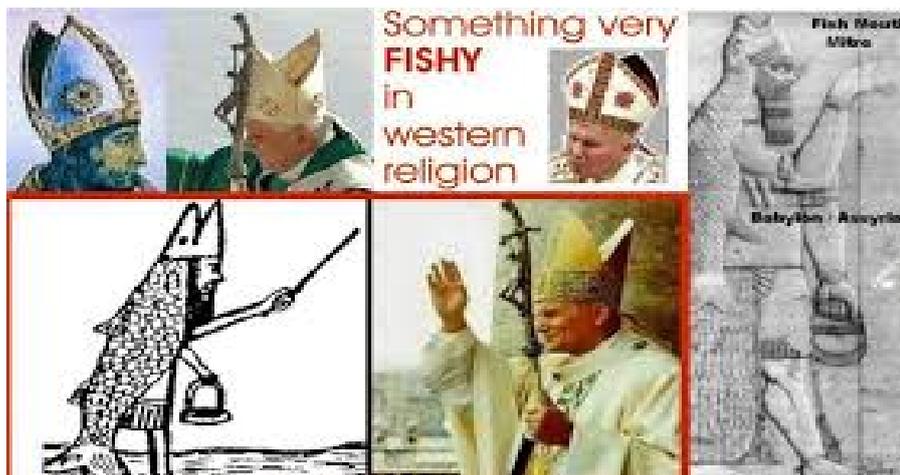

Dagon in Mesopotamian sculpture.

One of the things that you need to be aware of in the culture wars we are facing. There are real gods of the nations that are fallen angels who want praise and acknowledgment. They are coming out of the Abyss. They want to do what they have done in the past: They want to mate with women to raise up a hybrid breed of man/angel super beings.

Watch for the new themes of beyond same sex unions of men with men and women with women...watch the new themes of human with non-human sex. That is what is behind all the “mermaid” memes you will see when you look for it...the coming cross breeding of humans and fallen angels.

And don't be fooled by “religion”! Watch the symbols. The symbols are the adverts for who they really represent and who the real spiritual powers are behind the image.

CNBC Report Friday 2 Feb

“Dow plummets 666 points, capping worst week in 2 years”

My prediction:

GLOBAL DEBT AND ASSET BUBBLES WILL IMplode

One thing is certain, global debt at $240 trillion plus unfunded liabilities of $250 trillion and derivatives of $1.5 quadrillion which is risk totalling $2 quadrillion can never be repaid. However it happens and however long it takes, the debt must be eliminated. And once it is, all the assets linked to this debt will also implode. But before the implosion, we are likely to have hyperinflation as desperate governments hopelessly attempt to inflate the debt away.
